i. Master (Rachael Sanderson)

This has been another great term for DUSCR. Wednesday ringing has been busy around exams, with 'learners' growing in ability to ring Plain Hunt, with various other methods being rung. Also, several quarter/peal achievements have been made by the band, including a Peal of Yorkshire surprise (first for Elizabeth and calling by James), Cambridge major and Bob Doubles (first calling for Elizabeth, first away from tenor for Joe). Finally, Sunday ringing has been highly consistent- thank you to all who give up their lie ins!

We have also had our summer tour to Leeds, consisting of 20 towers which was enjoyed by all. Thank you to all who came, with a special acknowledgement of the life members who supported us, and the drivers who sacrificed pints of beer to get us between the towers.

Thank you to all the drivers who have got us to practice each week, especially Jean and Keith. Also, farewell to all our graduates, and good luck- see you at the dinner in December!

ii. Treasurer (Oliver Rice)

The money is doing well, the fuel for tour has been paid for by the refunds from the t-shirts. Michael Anderson won the beer tally for tour with 18 pints. This term's fuel costs will be issued soon along with everybody's beer costs from tour.

iii. Webmaster (Joseph Walker)

Website is up to date as of just prior to tour, but I will sort out uploading tour images and information in the next week or so when I have a little more free time.

7. Any other business

a. Rachael Sanderson: The mini ring for freshers outside the DSU, I haven't given much thought to it, but I won't be there on the weekend so please help out. Any creative people for redesigning the flyers and the freshers fair stall please make yourself known, though we are still waiting for information about the freshers' fair from the DSU.

b. Rachel Wells: The handbell cases will be sorted over summer.
