

DURHAM UNIVERSITY SOCIETY OF CHANGE RINGERS

Easter Term – TGM

26th June 2019 – St. Brandon's Church, Brancepeth

Agenda

Meeting opened at 20.11

Present:

Akari	Hester & Tom
Izzy Seale	Keith
Izzy Gale	Joe
Sam White	Rachael
Natasha	Alex Riley
Jean Woodward	Will Wood

1. Apologies for absence

Will Wood would like to generally apologise for never turning up.

Oliver Rice

Michael Crilly.

2. Approval of the minutes from the Epiphany term TGM

Taken as read and approved on a general aye.

3. Officers' reports:

a) Master

It was noted that the DSU constitution demands the chairperson be the head of the society – the DSU confirmed that we can essentially ignore this in practice.

Izzy to attend a meeting with a DSU representative.

b) Treasurer

We have some money. Umm yep. Alex did not know how much. People have been paid for driving from last term.

c) Webmaster

Things have changed on the website that can't be seen, but it will be easier to update e.g. officers' names across the websites. More quotes have been added. Planning to re-write the whole thing → won't make a noticeable difference.

4. Election of life members

Natasha Kozlowski (proposed by Joe Walker, seconded by Rachael Sanderson)

Rachael Sanderson (proposed by Joe Walker, seconded by Izzy Seale)

Will Wood (proposed by Rachael Sanderson, seconded by Matthew Pearson)

Ella Ramsden (proposed by Rachael Sanderson, seconded by Izzy Seale)

All nominations were approved on a general aye. Sam pointed out that the new constitution allowed for an appeals panel.

5. Any other business

Joe wants an official DUSCR mascot. Oliver on tour wanted it to be roadkill. Joe would post a poll about stuffed toys.

Izzy suggested buying more stash – Matthew's shrunk in the wash (sad reaccs only). Will Wood's extensive efforts produced two (polyester or silk) DUSCR ties, both of which are incorrect. The meeting showed little enthusiasm for Will to pursue buying ties.

James Morgan rocked up here.

Izzy thanked Jean and Keith for driving DUSCR ringers to practices – chocolates were duly presented.

Rachael thanked Izzy for organising tour – Alex noted that it was the best one ever.

Rachael and Joe are continuing to plan the dinner. Something to be written for the RW to sum up tour and plans for the 60th anniversary dinner – how can we reduce paper advertising as much as possible. We may have the church speaker sorted – Revd Anna Brooker (of Brancepeth).

Jean may have access to photos of the church after the fire – may be used for the Dinner weekend.

Meeting closed at 20.28.
